No 9937-38/Ex 504 dt. 13. 6. 01.

G. R. S. 58 Sanctions the above Remission.

(Please see secretary's query* dated 1st June 1901)

Is it not usual to get Vernacular records also in such cases? If not, this may issue.

Yes, it is generally obtained but in simple cases like the one under reference, the remission is sanctioned on the Excise Commr's report to the effect that the defaulters have been proceeded against and that ~~money~~ ~~the balance~~ the amount of arrears has become irrecoverable.

3 cases* in which similar sanction has been accorded since herewith submitted for perusal.

He failed to pay the deposit amount and the Shop was resold on the 20th April 1899 and was knocked down to Venkategowda the highest bidder for Rs 240-0-0. The resale resulted in a loss of Rs. 108-0-0. The Amildar reports that Chikkegowda owns no property for recovery of the loss shown in Column 18. Hence the remission recommended for sanction, together with interest due thereon up to date.

that the balance shown under column 18 in this statement is ascertained to be correct in accounts of his office.
